

Berkeley Rose Waldorf School

Affordable Tuition Program Information, Instructions, and Supplemental Form for 2018-2019 School Year

Berkeley Rose Waldorf School is committed to sustaining cultural and socio-economic diversity. Each year Berkeley Rose offers reduced tuition to the maximum number of students possible through our Affordable Tuition Program (ATP). Families who are committed to providing a Waldorf education for their children but are concerned about their ability to pay should consider applying for financial aid.

In order to fairly determine a family's financial need, the school uses a needs-analysis program developed by the School and Student Service for Financial Aid (SSS) developed by the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS). Total income, assets, number of dependents, cost of educating all children in fee-charging institutions, extraordinary expenses, and retirement needs are all taken into consideration. In addition, we carefully consider individual circumstances made known to us in the school's own supplemental form.

Enclosed you will find Berkeley Rose Waldorf School's Affordable Tuition Program information, instructions and the request/supplemental form. The ATP Committee will allocate financial aid awards by late February for returning families and in mid to late March with decision letters for newly accepted families.

Again, please read the instructions carefully and pay close attention to the deadlines. If you have any questions or need assistance as you complete the application process, please contact Robert Schorlemmer at (510) 859-7679 (robert@berkeleyrose.org).

INFORMATION FOR PARENTS WHO ARE SEPARATED OR DIVORCED

Berkeley Rose Waldorf School’s policy requires that separated or divorced parents requesting financial aid must BOTH complete financial aid forms. This includes the custodial and non-custodial parent. Each parent is required to submit all the documents stated above by January 19, 2018.

Berkeley Rose Waldorf School’s policy in determining the financial need of students whose parents are separated or divorced is as follows: Remarriage of either parent creates a new family unit with new relationships but we believe that natural (or original adoptive) parents still have a responsibility for educational expenses despite any legal agreements to the contrary. Therefore, the income, expenses, assets and liabilities of the entire new family unit are considered in addition to the natural (or adoptive) parent’s ability to contribute to the cost of education.

The term custodial parent refers to the parent with whom the student resides (or resided with most during the 12 months prior to the date of the application). The other parent is referred to as the non-custodial parent even in cases where parents legally share joint custody. Please remember that under joint custody, both parents are jointly liable for the full amount of tuition owed.

The School wishes to minimize any potential problems students might encounter as a result of this policy, so the Affordable Tuition Program Committee will gladly consider any special circumstances that might prevent compliance, such as:

1. The location of the non-custodial parent is unknown.
2. The non-custodial parent has had no contact with the family for more than three years.

Parents are assured that all information submitted is kept in the strictest confidence. Note: We will not be able to review a financial aid application until all the information required by the deadline is received.
