

The Essence of Waldorf Education

Workshop for parents with Ken Smith

Four Wednesday evenings 7—9pm January 23 to February 13 2019

Explore the essential ideas and practices that are the foundation of Waldorf education. This course of four classes will help you as a Waldorf parent to understand the Waldorf approach, the curriculum and what your child's teachers are striving for. Participants will engage in artistic work, discussion, and study together the book
'Understanding Waldorf' by Jack Petrash

Cost $95 for all four classes

Register kim@berkeleyrose.org

Berkeley Rose Waldorf School, 2515 Hillegass Ave

Ken Smith is the Director of the Bay Area Center for Waldorf Teacher Training and has been active in Waldorf Education internationally for over 20 years. Image by Odilon Redon